

In Loving Memory of Professor Dr. Subhash Ranade (1940-2025)

The Pune District Education Association's - International Journal of Research in Ayurved and Allied Sciences Editorial Members pay tribute to the life and legacy of Professor Dr. Subhash Ranade, a highly regarded educator, researcher, and representative of Ayurvedic medicine throughout the world. He was the member of the international advisory board of PDEASIJRAAS, which was an enormous honour for us. Dr. Ranade passed away quietly, by leaving an unmatched legacy that revolutionized Ayurveda worldwide in form of books. Dr. Ranade was the former Dean of Ashtang Ayurved Mahavidyalaya in Pune, India, and Chairman of International Academy of Ayurveda, Pune. He was pioneer in establishing Ayurveda globally. He travelled widely and inspired thousands of students and practitioners with his depth of knowledge and unending kindness as he committed his life to bringing Ayurvedic teachings to the world. His contributions established the groundwork for the current worldwide Ayurvedic movement. God ought to grant the deceased soul serenity.
